

CALL FOR NATIONAL RECREATION & PARK ASSOCIATION (NRPA) LEISURE RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM (LRS) POSTER COORDINATOR for 2013 - 2014

The Education Network (formerly known as SPRE) of the National Recreation and Park Association (NRPA) is pleased to announce the availability of the Poster Coordinator Volunteer Position for a 1-year term (beginning in October 2013 for the 2014 Leisure Research Symposium). This is a volunteer position appointed by the Education Network Leadership in collaboration with the current senior LRS Co-Chair (Jason Bocarro, Associate Professor at North Carolina State University) and current junior LRS Co-Chair (Jim Sibthorp, Associate Professor at University of Utah). Details of this important position are provided below.

Responsibilities of LRS Poster Coordinator:

- In conjunction with LRS Co-chairs make recommendations on which abstracts should be included in the Leisure Research Symposium
- Review and assist with judging the Best Student Abstract Award
- Coordinate logistics of set-up and break-down of the poster session with NRPA Staff
- Communicate logistics of the poster session with the poster presenters

Qualifications of Poster Coordinator:

- Experience as a reviewer and/or review coordinator for the LRS is desired
- Involvement as a presenter at the LRS in past year(s)
- Active research program in the field with a record of scholarship
- Well-organized, detail oriented, and excellent time management skills
- Available throughout the year (including Summer) to meet program deadlines
- Attend the NRPA Conference each year during the 1-year term (2014)

If you are interested in the LRS Co-Chair position, please submit by email or fax your current Curriculum Vita (CV) and a one page letter of application by Friday, May 3rd, 2013 to:

Laura Payne, Chair
NRPA Education Network
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
Email: lpayne@illinois.edu
Phone: 217-244-7038 Fax: 217-244-1935